LEVIATHAN'S $100,000 RE-FIT.

Nine Months' Work for Chatham Dockyard.

Admiralty orders are issued for the armoured cruiser Leviathan to refit at Chatham Dockyard, at a cost of £101,760.
The work will take nine months.
The Leviathan, which is one of the Drake class of armoured cruisers—carrying two 9.2 in. guns and 15 6 in. quickfiring, and steaming 28 knots, has had ten years' service as flagship in the Far East. She is to be detached from the Sixth (Training) Cruiser Squadron at Portsmouth, to proceed to Chatham to be taken in hand for the refit on June 1.
The Leviathan was laid down at Barrow in 1901, and completed in 1903, her total cost being £1,012,960.

WHITE ANTS AND BUILDINGS.

In order to circumvent white ants the foundations should be constructed and carried up sufficiently to give a clearance of 2 to 3 ft. between the ground and the floor joists, and there should be a sufficiency of large ventilators so as to admit the free entrance of light to all parts. Where it is desired to have tiled or flagged floors, as in kitchens, parlours, bedrooms, and for verandahs, these should not be built upon soil filled in between the supporting brick or stone piers, but should rest upon concrete beds supported by ironwork. Similarly, the pier erected to support fireplaces should not be in the form of hollow brick boxes filled with earth and the debris of building operations. They should be empty and with openings to admit light. In the setting of stone or brick, sand and cement mortar should, of course, be used, not dargol, which, even when "pointed" with cement, is a way in for white ants. Where bricks or stone or terrace-proof woods are unavoidable, then the wood that is selected should be thoroughly treated by soaking some days in arsenic solution, and then, when dry, well tarred or creosoted. As a further protection they may be set in cement.
That constant interference with them does drive ants away must be admitted. A more striking example of this is not to be found perhaps than the immunity of Raffia huts, every part of which is attractive food for the ants, and whose walls touch the ground, yet dargol huts are eaten.

DARING BURGLARY AT THE

BERKELEY HOTEL.

Porters Bound and Gagged.

£3,000 in Jewellery Stolen.

A daring robbery, says the "Daily Telegraph," was committed at the Berkeley Hotel, Piccadilly, during the early hours of May 20. After wounding, binding, and gagging the night porters,
the burglars escaped with jewellery valued at £3,000. So serious a view of the matter was taken by the authorities that, instead of the inquiry being left in the hands of the divisional detectives, Chief Inspector Fowler was sent from Scotland Yard to assume charge. No arrests have yet been made.

A gang of expert international criminals is believed to have planned the coup.
There can be no doubt that their plans have been maturing for some time, and that they gained a thorough knowledge of the interior of the hotel, and ascertained the spots where the night porters were stationed. What is more, they also managed to secure a duplicate of the key to the safe.

About three a.m. shouts and cries of "Murder!" and "Police!" were heard coming from the hotel, and a constable who was patrolling Berkeley-street tried the front door, which he found ajar. He shouted for assistance, and officers entered the building which stands at the corner of Berkeley-street and Piccadilly, opposite to the Ritz, and next door to the Duke of Devonshire's house.

Tied up with ropes.

In an ante-room in the entrance-hall they found the second night porter, a man named James, lying on the floor bound. He was wounded about the head, and a quantity of blood covered the cap-et. He was recovering from the effects of a severe blow which, so far as he could guess, was inflicted an hour and a half earlier. Ropes had been used to tie him up, and a blue handkerchief fastened across the face served as a gag. This he had managed to work loose, and it was his cries that attracted the attention of the police officer.

Another discovery was made almost immediately. Henry Gowers, the night porter, was found unconscious on a sofa in the reception-room, securely bound and gagged. Five severe wounds in the head, from which blood had poured, bore testimony to the treatment he had received.

Detective-Sergeant Smith was quickly on the scene. He found that the safe had been opened and ransacked of money and jewellery, all that remained being a lady's grey suede bag containing French notes and coins. As there were no marks on the safe, it was obvious that a false key had been used. By this time, the hotel staff and the guests had been awakened. A number of the latter had deposited their jewellery with the management for safe keeping, and they were somewhat disturbed to find that it had gone.

SEIZED BY THE THIEVES.

Both the porters were untied and removed to Charing-cross Hospital and then to St. George's. Gowers was suffering from concussion, as well as from injuries to the head, and his condition was regarded as serious. James was not so badly hurt, and after his head had been dressed he returned to the hotel, where he gave a statement to the police, and afterwards went to his home in Kensington.

His story did not help the detectives.
He said that it was about half-past one when he heard soft footfalls behind him, but before he could spring up and detect himself he was struck on the head, while another man caught him round the throat. Marks on his throat showed where it had been grasped by a strong hand. While unconscious he was tied up and managed to remove the gag; he shouted for help.

At first the police thought that the thieves gained admittance to the hotel by posing as guests, and that during the night they emerged from their rooms.
All the guests, however, were satisfactorily accounted for, and the means by which they had entered was ascertained.

SEIZURE APPROACH.

In Dove-street an arched passage on the left hand side runs into an inner yard, and the burglars evidently passed from this through some doors to a storehouse.
Here they climbed a ladder, and reached an iron bridge, which gave them access to the Berkeley Hotel fire escape ladder.
Eventually they arrived at the second floor, and choosing a favourable moment they got through a window, and going down the carpeted stairs struck Gowers down almost before he was aware of their presence; so noiseless was their approach.

Then they went in search of James,
who was similarly treated. After riding the safe, the burglars coolly left by the front door, leaving behind them as the only clue—if it can be called a clue—the chisel, an instrument a foot long, with which they wounded Gowers. It is worthy of note that the burglars chose a moment when the porters were separated.
Apparently the attack on Gowers was carried out so quickly that James was unaware of it.

A list of the stolen property has been furnished to Scotland Yard, but it is not known whether it is complete, as some of the people who are staying at the hotel are away. The description of the stolen jewellery, which is valued at £3,000, and which belongs chiefly to Miss F. Moore and Miss C. Andrews, is as follows:—

THE STOLEN JEWELLERY.

Pearl necklace, composed of about seventy round pearls, graduating, silk beads between each pearl, gold clasp set single diamond clasp engraved "F. M."
from Paris, Oct. 20, 1895.

Engelstein "pearl" ring, surrounded small diamonds, each set separately.

Rectangle sapphire ring, with-cut corners, supposed engraved.

Large sapphire, with band of small diamonds, set in an outside band of small sapphires connected by pearl and diamond to an oval pendant engraved inside-gold band "F. M. Paris" with a date.

Opal brooch, set large single stone, surrounded by pearls, small pendant attached, composed of small diamonds, pearl, and pear-shaped opal.

Small diamond bow brooch, single pearl drop attached, set in gold and platinum, black enameled edge to stone.

Diamond brooch, intertwined loops.

Antique diamond pendant, about 6 inches long.

THE MODERN SORE THROAT CURE

What Distinguished Men Use.

It is not often that British Peers and distinguished M.P.s join the public know what remedies they use for curing their complaints.

When, however, they do this, and state over their signatures the results they have obtained, everyone must realize that the preparation they employ furnishes the best, simplest and quickest cure.

Every sufferer from sore throat will, therefore, read the following letters with interest:

Viscount Bessborough and Lord Widdowson write: "I have found Welling's Formamin most effective for the cure of sore throat, which quickly disappears after using a few tablets."

Lord Kingsley writes: "I and my family use quite a number of Welling's Formamin Tablets, and find them all you say they are. I always carry a goodly number in my pocket, and have recommended them to many friends."

Lord Glanville writes: "I have been using Formamin Tablets for sore throat, with most satisfactory results."

Among other distinguished users of Formamin are the Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, M.P., Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., Mademoiselle Adeline Patti, the Hon. Mrs. Alfred Lyttelton, and Lord Justice Buckley, while over seven thousand doctors have written, testifying to its value.

Welling's Formamin is sold by all Chemists, in bottles of fifty tablets. Refuse all substitutes—they are worthless. Insist on having Welling's Formamin, which is manufactured by a fully patented process. A Booklet will be sent, free, to all readers who write mentioning this paper, to Messrs A. Welling & Co., 6, Kiangling Road, Shanghai.

The Booklet is written by a famous London doctor, and deals with sore throat and similar ailments.

During the morning, detectives under Divisional Detective-Inspector Cizilia, made extensive inquiries. One point which they sought to elucidate was how the thieves obtained a false key to the safe. Nothing came to light which provided a solution. In the afternoon Chief Inspector Fowler, who was formerly attached to the Vio-street Division, and who was successful in bringing many notorious burglars to justice, and in recovering thousands of pounds of stolen jewellery, assumed charge of the investigations. It will be remembered that he arrested the men who carried out the £20,000 loot robbery at the late Mr. Wertheimer's residence in Park-lane, and who recovered for their owner the greater portion of the treasure.

The manager of the hotel writes: The two night-porters, on duty were overpowered by a gang of three or more men, who then partly rifled one of the safes. A considerable part of the contents was not touched, as the thieves were evidently disturbed by the arrival of police-men, who had heard the cry of one of the night-porters for help. Both porters were injured, one seriously. The thieves evidently waited until one of the night porters had started on his rounds, in order to attack them separately. The contents of the safe, are insured at Lloyd's.

Under date May 31.

By far the most mysterious feature of the outrage at the Berkeley Hotel, Piccadilly, where burglars broke in the early hours of Thursday morning and stole £20,000 worth of jewellery from the hotel safe, after wounding and gagging the two night-porters, is the question of how the thieves managed to secure a duplicate of the key of the safe. This key is never allowed out of managerial custody. Nevertheless, it must, at some time or other, have got into the hands of only for a few seconds, of an unauthorized person.

So far the police have not succeeded in obtaining a certain clue on this point, but inquiries give every promise of reward. It is believed that the burglary had been carefully planned for some time past, and that in the course of the last few weeks, one, if not two, of the thieves must have stayed at the hotel, and become familiar with its internal working. An expert criminal, by taking advantage of some slight relaxation of vigilance, could obtain, by means of some wax, concealed in the palm of the hand, an imprint of the safe key.

Having accomplished this, the carrying out of the robbery was comparatively easy. It is now certain that entry to the hotel was obtained from a doorway at the rear of the premises. Inside the hotel all movement would be noiseless by reason of the heavy-pile carpets laid along the principal passages and stairways.

PORTER'S STORY.

Henry Gowers, the head night-porter, who was seriously injured by the burglars, and removed to St. George's Hospital, was sufficiently recovered yesterday to be able to make a statement to the police, and from this it would appear that three men entered the coup. Gowers says he was standing near the counter at his office, which is near the Berkeley street entrance about three a.m., and had his back to the staircase. The Berkeley street door was closed and fastened. Hearing footsteps he turned round, and caught sight of a man with two others following behind him. Instantly the first man pressed a handkerchief to his mouth, and at the same time Gowers felt a stinging sensation in the head, which brought about unconsciousness. To the best of his recollection the first man wore a trilby hat and had a heavy black moustache. So quickly was the assault committed that he was unable to get even a cursory view of the other two men.

When the police discovered Gowers he was gagged with a blue-coloured handkerchief and had his arms tightly bound with wire.

A large part of the contents of the safe was left untouched. Before the thieves were able to complete their work the cry of "Jenny," the second night-porter, which brought the police on the scene, caused them to make a hasty exit. There can be no doubt that they must have been disappointed in the "fruit" of their long-planned coup. They, no doubt, calculated upon a very much heavier haul; but they omitted from their calculations the fact that the large number of private guests given every night keeps the visitors out until late in the morning.

Chief Inspector Fowler, who has the investigation in hand, is said to be hopeful of making an arrest, despite the slender clues he has to go upon. A student of the case is Mr. J. H. B. B. B.

A Stimulant as Satisfactory as Alcohol.

as Alcohol.

O.T.

O.T. is the long-wanted happy medium between a "hard" and a "soft" drink. It compares with spirituous liquors in its stimulating qualities, its satisfying body and its piquant bite—but it is free from alcohol, and is without in toxicating, or other undesirable effects. O.T. is a beneficial drink for ladies when needing a stimulant owing to its warming and comforting properties. No home should be without a bottle.

As a stomachic, it has wonderful virtues for colic, dysentery, and other stomach troubles. No drink is more suitable than O.T. for both abstemious and non-abstemious; none is more healthful for young and old.

A Liqueur—Stomachic—Pick-me-up.

Made from natural fruits and herbs O.T. is a pure and healthful beverage, and only favourable effects follow its use. After over-indulgence there's no better "pick-me-up." As a tonic when you feel "cut-out," there's nothing better to make you fit and well again.

O.T. is a true digestive, and therefore good as a medicinal drink, as an after-dinner liqueur, and as a remedy for indigestion, flatulence and "full feeling" after meals.

A Natural Remedy

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and exorcism and magic were invoked to cast it out. Science has taught us wisdom. The evil spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomach or intestines, fever with its hallucinations, or biliousness with its aches and pains, is the result.

ENO'S FRUIT SALT

is the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Its action is quick and thorough. It clears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.

It may be safely taken at any time by young or old.

It is very effective in the early stage of Diarrhoea by removing the irritating cause.

Be prepared for emergencies by always keeping a bottle in the house.

NEWS FROM HOME.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

London, May 23.

THE REMARKABLE LOAN.
The flotation of the Chinese Government 5 per cent loan was one of the greatest successes of recent times. The English portion amounted to £7,000,000, but £3,000,000 had already been placed "firm." For the remainder the public subscribed £60,000,000, and the lists were only open for a few hours. The following are the particulars of the allotment:

Application for	Allotment
£100 to £200	all
£200 to £1,000	£100
£1,000 to £2,000	£200
£2,000 to £5,000	£500
£5,000 to £10,000	£1,000
£10,000 to £20,000	£2,000
£20,000 to £50,000	£5,000
£50,000 to £100,000	£10,000
£100,000 to £250,000	£25,000

There were at least two applications in excess of £500,000, but they were treated on the same basis as the half million applicants. The effect of the policy of the issuing banks was to steady the market, as large numbers of the small applicants were solely intent upon snatching the premium. The "Standard" describes the rush for the loan as reminiscent of boom periods, but adds—"It would probably be a mistake to assume from the reception given to the loan that the volume of money awaiting investment is abnormally large, though there can be no doubt that the knowledge of this great operation having been so successful concluded will tend to clear the way for other business."

On the other hand the "Express" comments—"The success of the loan proves that there is an enormous amount of loose capital in the country awaiting investment. It will be a great incentive to those who have sound propositions awaiting capital and are prepared to come before the public and give them full details regarding the flotation."

Only a few weeks ago the Rothschilds brought out a great loan for the Brazilian Government but it was a gigantic failure. The loan was quoted at a discount on the day of issue, and the underwriters were left with all except about 6 per cent. of it. The Chinese loan was well advertised, and from the investor's point of view was the best thing on the market for many a long year.

The Berlin portico was also covered several times over, and the "Frankfurter Zeitung" warns its readers against any belief that the present amount of £25,000,000 loan to China is enough to meet that country's wants, as the currency reform alone, which is now under consideration, will require further loan money. "It is fairly obvious that it is only the present restricted condition of the European money market which has caused the loan to be limited to £25,000,000."

JAPAN'S DEMAND.
With the approach of peace in the Near East it is felt to be regrettable that clouds are beginning to gather in the Far East. Although the feeling between Japan and the United States is a long way from open hostilities yet no one denies that it is ominous. Sir Valentine Chirol contributes to the "Times," an article in which he points out that there are scores of Japanese now settled in the United States leading useful and honourable lives as merchants, farmers, and fruit-growers, who, judged by all ordinary standards of education and conduct, need not fear comparison with any of their neighbours.

The most important question at issue is the right of Japan to be received and treated on an equality with other nations. Sir Valentine Chirol puts it—"Within 50 years a nation which is neither Occidental, nor White, nor Christian, has for the first time taken its place alongside the nations who pride themselves on being Occidental, and White, and Christian, as one of the Great Powers of the world. Her example, too, has fired the imagination of the whole of Asia. Though, perhaps, none may be capable of following in her footsteps, she has all the world over shaken the fatalistic acquiescence of other races in the white man's claim to pre-eminence. The United States has to meet this problem, and the echoes of the controversy will not be confined to the State of California, but will reverberate around the world."

British Columbia, apparently, sides with California. Sir R. McBride the Premier, speaking at Victoria, said that while the issue presented important international phases, the principle involved was vital to the people of all the Pacific coast. British Columbia, unitedly adhered to the position that the province should be preserved for a while to the British people.

declared that even then the Government was in possession of evidence showing the continued existence of treasonable conspiracy.

At the same time there has been a curious disinclination in official circles, both in India and at home, to acknowledge that the dangers which encompass British rule in India are still far from being checked. And much as one must admire the personal courage which the Viceroy showed when his life was attempted, it is to be regretted that the Delhi outrage was not followed by a more strenuous endeavour to make clear, once and for all, that what are euphemistically called political crimes would be suppressed and punished with the utmost sternness. No one has suffered for the attempted assassination in the streets of the new capital; and it was the culmination of a series of outrages which may be said to have begun when the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal had his first escape from an assassin in 1907. And since a bomb was hurled at the viceregal procession in Chandni Chaur, the spread of organised lawlessness in Eastern India has shown an alarming increase. The Calcutta "Statesman" has given a list of the dacoities and murders committed in Bengal during the first four months of the current year. In the Eastern districts alone there were twenty-three dacoities, one political murder, and two river dacoities. It is impossible, in every case, to decide whether the gangs which roam about the country, terrorising, plundering, and occasionally murdering the inhabitants, are directly connected with any seditious association. But the prevalence of violent crimes, the apparent inadequacy of the police, and the unravelling, now, of the threads of a nefarious and carefully organised plot which has for its object war against the British Raj, must be coupled together as unmistakable symptoms of deeply rooted unrest which is a permanent peril to the lives of the King's subjects and a menace to our rule.

The danger is not one that will be successfully met by encouraging agitators to imagine that the louder they clamour for a larger share in the Administration the more likely they are to get what they want. That practically is the moral which is everywhere drawn by the literate classes from the facilities which were given them for ventilating their supposed grievances before a Royal Commission. Thanks to the way in which Mr. Ramsay MacDonald and some of his colleagues interpreted their mandate, inquiry has been seized as an opportunity for advancing the most preposterous demands. Instead of being satisfied with the reforms announced at the Coronation Durbar Young India is everywhere eagerly and hopefully looking forward to further concessions. In the Legislative Council of the United Provinces a resolution praying for the creation of an "Executive Council" was only defeated by the Lieutenant-Governor's casting vote. It has been more than hinted that such an advance on the progressive lines laid down by Lord Morley would be regarded with favour by the India Office; but Sir James Meeson doubtless sees as clearly as his predecessors did the risks of such a move. Not that his vote will settle the matter. There is, indeed, only too much reason for apprehending that before long an attempt will be made from this side, if not from Simla, to give a representative form to the Executive of an Indian province, which, in the opinion of those who know it best, is absolutely unsuited for the experiment. The truth is that India has had more than enough of constitutional reforms. What the country needs is strong and firm rule. Five years ago the late Sir Alfred Lyall declared that the Government of India must show its teeth instead of "playing into the hands of cowardly Bengal rascals. The need of vigorous action is no less imperative to-day.

As will be remembered, Reuter's agency recently telegraphed brief particulars of a conspiracy among certain Bengalis against British rule in India. No fewer than thirty persons were arrested, and of these, it appears, that several are persons of higher repute than the notorious bad characters and misguided youths who so frequently figure in Indian sedition trials. It is interesting to read of the probable origin of the ferment that has happily been detected and crushed. According to an article in the Standard on the subject, a few months ago, the Indian law relating to conspiracy, in spite of protests from some of the native members of the Legislative Council, was strengthened by an amendment of the Criminal Code. A means of evading justice which has not infrequently proved effective is no longer available. It would obviously be improper, of course, to assume that the present trial will end in the conviction of all or any of the accused; but it is satisfactory to know that there is less chance of the guilty escaping than there would have been a year ago. It would appear, moreover, that the investigation, which has led to the prosecution, has been in progress for months past; and we are told that a vast quantity of incriminating evidence has been collected. It is not a case of sudden zeal on the part of the provincial authorities, which, as is sometimes the case, may be discouraged by the higher powers if it is not defeated through the uncertainty of the law. Much of this uncertainty has been remedied, and we cannot believe that Lord Hardinge and his advisers have ignored the gravity of the position. When laying the Conspiracy Bill before the Council Sir Reginald Cradock plainly

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The Legislative Council is meeting on Thursday. The foreign exchange and notes prohibition Bills will be taken through Committee.

The cargo of raw silk shipped on board the s.s. "Polynesian," which left this port on the 20th May, was delivered at Lyon on the 21st instant.

A mass meeting was held at the Seiyokan, Tsukiji, recently, when a manifesto was issued drawing the attention of the Japanese authorities to their mistaken policy in China. Messrs. Inukai and Otsuki are the chief promoters.

Mr. J. Hennessy Soth, liquidator of the "Am Wang Land Investment Company," announces that as there was no quorum present at the meeting held on the 21st instant an adjournment was made till Saturday, 28th inst., at the same time and place.

The Shanghai "China Press" quotes from a San Francisco paper the announcement of the wedding of Lieutenant W. H. Willott, formerly paymaster of the U.S.S. Helena, stationed at Shanghai, and Miss Amy Hanson, "one of the most charming" of the Ferris-Hartman Musical Comedy Company, which some months ago visited the Far East.

A number of Japanese, educated by the Rev. D. C. Greene, of Tokyo, held a meeting at the Seiyokan, Tsukiji, on the 7th instant, to congratulate the Doctor on the honour recently conferred upon him in the bestowal of a decoration by the Japanese Government. Congratulatory speeches were delivered, to which Dr. Greene feelingly responded.

Five further cases of plague, four of which were fatal, were notified yesterday. The total deaths last week were sixteen Chinese and one Portuguese. In the same time period seven cases of enteric and two of pox were reported, two of the enteric cases ending fatally. The number of plague cases notified since January 1st is 155 of which 133 were fatal.

At the Magistrate's Court this morning, Mr. Melbourne heard a case in which a Chinese was charged with stealing $7 from the person of a passenger on the s.s. Gloucester, and was sentenced to six weeks hard labour and four hours stocks a week ago. Mr. Leo D'Almeida called no evidence for the defence, and Mr. Melbourne, considering that there was a doubt in the case, discharged the defendant.

"I have found by experience that Sikhs when they come here always tell lies and waste my time. They must go to their own priests who can make them swear on their sacred books and make them speak the truth. When I get the report I will consider it and give judgment on it." With this pronouncement, says the Shanghai Mercury, Mr. F. S. A. Bourne, C.M.G., Assistant Judge, nipped in the bud what promised to be a case with manifold possibilities in H.B.M.'s Supreme Court, Shanghai, on 18th inst.

A gang of men entered a house on the Shanghai Road, opposite the Royal Hongkong Yacht Club, in which resides the commander of the "Atlantic Petroleum Company." He was away from home this morning, and in his absence a number of men broke in and after gagging and binding the commander's wife and other occupants of the house, they decamped with about $800 worth of jewellery and other property. The Bay View police station is only a short distance away, and this makes the robbery all the more daring.

The following gem appears in the Box of Quips, which is indebted to Messrs. Kelly and Walsh for permission to publish it reproduced without addition or abridgement.

"MY DEAR KELLY,
"I am fifteen years old just now. I want to be a bookseller. Let me supply your store."
"Now, you must write to me."
"I am, my dear Kelly."
"Your very faithfully," K. M."

It is not stated whether "dear Kelly" engaged this young man who "wants to be," and who expresses his desire so engagingly.

Before Mr. Hazeland at the Magistrate's Court this morning, Inspector Kerr charged a policeman on the railway with the larceny of an umbrella, and with failing to hand the umbrella over to the Station Master at Kowloon. The umbrella was the property of Mr. R. Hancock, who left it in the train. Defendant said the station Master was away, or he would have handed it over. The Traffic Superintendent, Mr. Acland, said that it was a very serious thing for the defendant to have left the points, as a train might have been derailed. Defendant was fined $15 or one month.

Mr. G. W. Sewell, a cashier in Messrs. Deacon, Lockyer, Dodson, and Harrison, pluckily rescued a Chinese man from drowning on Sunday afternoon. Just after one of the ferry boats on which Mr. Sewell was crossing had left the Hongkong pier the man jumped overboard, evidently with the intention of committing suicide, a cry of "man overboard" was raised, and Mr. Sewell immediately dived in. The Chinese struggled wildly with his rescuer, who managed to hold on to him until his limbs could be thrown from the launch. As the Chinese made further attempts to jump into the water he was bound until he was handed over to the police.

CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN BALM.
A TOUCH OF rheumatism, or a twinge of neuralgia, whatever the trouble is, Chamberlain's Pain Balm drives away the pain at once and cures the complaint quickly. First application gives relief. In fact, for the household use it is just such an invaluable remedy as every family should be provided with. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Chinese Charged.

The Chinese youth who jumped into the water from the Star Ferry on Sunday afternoon was brought before Mr. Hazeland at the Magistrate's Court this morning and was charged with attempted suicide.

Mr. G. W. Sewell was present in Court. Defendant in reply to the charge said that he fell overboard.

Inspector Kerr said there was no doubt that the man jumped. Mr. Sewell jumped from the ferry to rescue the man, and defendant made a great struggle to get away, but Mr. Sewell held him. The defendant had friends in Hongkong.

Mr. Hazeland asked if there was any one who would look after the defendant? Inspector Kerr said that the defendant had friends in Wing Lok Street.

A cousin of the defendant was in Court, and he said there was nothing wrong with the youth. He did not know why he should have jumped overboard.

Inspector Kerr said that the defendant told him that he was sick and tired of life. Yesterday, however, he denied jumping overboard, and said that he fell in the water, although he did not know how.

On the defendant's relative promising to look after him, the accused was discharged.

Inspector Kerr said he thought that Mr. Sewell deserved commendation for jumping overboard and saving the man. He had already reported the matter to headquarters.

The Magistrate complimented Mr. Sewell on effecting the rescue, and told the defendant that his life had been saved by Mr. Sewell's gallantry.

Defendant then left the Court with his cousin.

GREEK ARRESTED IN HONGKONG.

A Greek named Karadimos was arrested in Hongkong on the 18th inst. on a charge of larceny at Shanghai. At the Magistrate's Court this morning Inspector Watt applied to Mr. Melbourne to remand the defendant in police custody for three days until his passage to Shanghai could be arranged.

A remand until the 27th was ordered. The man, who has been arrested, it is alleged, is one of a gang that has been committing thefts at various places in the Far East. He was an associate of a European who is awaiting trial on a serious charge.

SPORTING.

Billiards.

The final match for the Volunteer Challenge Cup between the 33rd Coy., R.G.A., and Royal Engineers (A) was commenced at the Soldiers' Club last night, a large number of spectators being present.

The opening play was Gunner Goodwin, 33rd Coy., R.G.A., and Corporal Carpenter, R.E. (A). Carpenter started well, scoring 28 to 3 but Goodwin, who was fortunate, led 41 to 39, and 60 to 37. Aided by a few lucky shots, the gunner forged well ahead and at 100 was 33 points in front. Carpenter, who was 32 behind at the 150 mark, played better in the latter part of the game, but was finally beaten by 22 points. Breaks, Goodwin, 13, 16, 14, 12, 11, 10. Carpenter, 12, 10. Scores: Gunner Goodwin, 220; Corporal Carpenter, 178.

The next game was between Gunner Campbell, 33rd Coy., R.G.A., and Sapper Cox, R.E. (A). Cox proved much the better player; Campbell favouring a hard hitting game. At 55, Cox was leading by 18 points, and with a fine break of 25 passed 100, 51 to the good. Campbell was no match for the sapper and was well beaten by 72 points. Breaks, Cox, 25, 13; Campbell, 11. Scores: Sapper Cox, 200; Gunner Campbell, 128.

The last game of the evening saw Sergeant Bennett, 33rd Coy., R.G.A., and Sergeant Regan, R.E. (A), in opposition. Bennett led at the outset, reaching 50 with Regan's score at 31. The scores were level at 60 after which Regan, helped by several flukes, scored rapidly, and after 107 was passed, led Bennett well behind. Regan scored his last 50 while Bennett made 8, winning easily by 50 points. Breaks, Regan, 15, 13, 10. Bennett, 10. Scores: Sergeant Regan, 200; Sergt. Bennett, 150.

The Royal Engineers have secured a lead of 100, the scores being Royal Engineers (A), 578; 33rd Coy., R.G.A., 478.

Three more games will be played to-night; Gunner Jordan, Bomb-Corner and Gunner Wetherall representing 33rd Coy., R.G.A., and Sergt-Major Morgan, Q. M. Collings, and Corp. Walden, R.E. (A).

Boxing.

In a remarkable fight at Brisbane with Bill Butler recently, Jack Cordell, who is well known in Hongkong, made a name for himself. Seven rounds of a twenty round contest were fought. Twice in the first round he was sent to the boards, taking the count to nine and then to eight. Coming up, he saved himself until the "go" went, and in the next round he blocked a heavy left from Butler and then sent him down with a right swing. On Butler getting up he was sent to the ropes with a couple of terrific face punches, and the police intervened. The referee first gave the fight to Butler, but reversing his decision said he had mistaken the man.

NOT AS SAMPLE.

CHINESE TAILOR AND D'OLYPS.

In the Summary Court this morning before the Police Judge, Mr. Justice Kemp, Miss Emily Peak, of 13, Lyndhurst Terrace, sued Lin Lee, tailor, of 54 Lyndhurst Terrace third floor, for the recovery of $60.

Mr. J. H. Gardiner, solicitor, was for plaintiff, defendant appearing in person.

Mr. Gardiner opening the plaintiff's case, said some time in October or November plaintiff, who had had previous dealings with defendant, ordered from him twelve d'olyps—six for $21 and six for $39—which defendant promised to make according to sample. Plaintiff had one sample and defendant kept one. Defendant took some time to make the d'olyps because he had to send to Canton for them; after about a month he delivered them in a parcel, and without looking at them plaintiff paid him the $60.

On opening the parcel plaintiff discovered that the goods were nothing like the sample given, and consequently she complained to defendant, who at length said he would take the goods back and alter them according to the sample. He had been frequently applied to, but had not delivered any of the d'olyps nor returned the money.

Complainant corroborated. Defendant alleged that he was never paid the $60.

The plaintiff, in an answer to his Lordship, said she did not receive a receipt for the $60; it was not customary to have a receipt from a Chinese tailor who was so frequently employed as defendant was. He was in and out of the house almost every day.

His Lordship observed that it was rather risky to pay money without a receipt.

After hearing the evidence for the defence his Lordship gave judgment for defendant, with costs.

THE SOTTO CASE.

Another Shading.

Vicente Sotto again appeared before Mr. Hazeland at the Magistrate's Court this afternoon to answer the charge of abduction at Cebu, Philippine Islands, in which the Crown is prosecuting with a view to extradition.

Mr. P. M. Hodgson, Crown Solicitor, prosecuted; Mr. G. E. Hall Bratton, defended; and Mr. Bender Harris watched the case on behalf of the U.S. Government.

Mr. Thomas C. Welch, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Philippines, was called to continue his evidence, and concluded the long answer to a question put by Mr. Bratton in cross-examination yesterday. In the course of this he said that the Philippine Islands were acquired from Spain first by military occupation and then by the Treaty of Paris. After the Treaty of Paris and until March and, the "sovereign" of the Philippines was the United States. On the last date Congress passed an Act by way of a proviso in an Appropriation Bill (Chapter 80, of the 60th Congress) which was commonly known as "the Spooner Amendment," providing that all military, civil and judicial powers necessary to govern the Philippines should until otherwise provided by Congress be vested in such persons and exercised in such manner as the President should direct.

Mr. Welch had not concluded his answer to the question when we went to press.

GIRL FOUND STARVING.

AN EXTRAORDINARY INSTANCE OF A WOMAN'S SUPERSTITION.

An extraordinary story of a woman's superstition comes from Shanghai. Acting on information received from some neighbours, the police visited the dwelling of a woman, known as Miss Chen, who lived alone with her daughter, Marcella, a girl of 14 who had not been seen for over six months.

When the police entered the place they discovered the girl lying in a sort of a box. She was terribly emaciated, and unable to speak or stand. She immediately removed to hospital, but it appears doubtful whether her life can be saved. She has eaten nothing but herbs for six months. The mother, who does not seem to be at all sane, made a statement in the following terms: "Several months ago a spell was put on my daughter and myself. It was a question of our lives, and when the magicians are after you you must defend yourself. I am not married, and that is why the devil is so difficult to chase away. He wants to kill my child. I know it, because he told me so. Therefore I purify Marcella's body by making her drink an infusion of poppies and sage and other herbs, which I may not mention because it is secret."

"To deceive the evil one I have several times pretended to hold Marcella's funeral. I have placed her on a bier, with her arms surrounded by lighted candles, and have given myself up to prayer. It was all in vain, and I could not destroy the spell. I was going to try again on the night of St. John by strangling a chicken on my daughter's body."

The woman has been arrested.

KOREAN PEER IN TROUBLE.

OLAM FOR ¥10,000.

A lawsuit has been instituted by Mr. Keen Sukkeun, Seoul, against Viscount Min Pyongok, Steward, at the Prince Yi Household. Mr. (formerly Baron) Yi Kichan and Mr. Yun Chui, claiming payment of ¥10,000. The Seoul Press says plaintiff alleges that the money was lent to Viscount Min on 21st of March last, and in return plaintiff received from him a promissory note endorsed by Mr. Yi and Mr. Yun, dated May 21st. On the stated day, however, the note was not honoured, in spite of the demands made by the plaintiff for payment. The hearing of the case was fixed for the 17th instant at the Seoul Local Court, Judge Yoshida presiding.

NEWS FROM HOME.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

LONDON, May 23.

FRENCH CABINET DANGER.

During the week end a most important interview took place between President Poincaré and M. Clemenceau. The two great statesmen of France have, it is reported, decided to bury the hatchet. Only a few weeks ago M. Clemenceau bitterly opposed the election of M. Poincaré. The fact that the President sent for the veteran statesman shows that he recognized a serious danger to the country in the antagonism of the Socialists to the Three Years' Army Bill, and shows, too, that he is afraid that the present Government under M. Barthou, may not be strong enough to cope with the danger. The Paris correspondent of the "Express" thinks that the Barthou Government may fall at any moment. In present circumstances a Cabinet crisis would bring with it serious consequences politically, commercially, and possibly in foreign policy as well. By sending for M. Clemenceau, and by securing his promise of help, M. Poincaré has shown that he is as good a President of the Republic as he was a Prime Minister. There is no fiercer antagonist of the Socialists in France than M. Clemenceau, who not only is a large following but is a keen advocate of the Three Years' Army Bill.

After this important interview a Cabinet crisis would not bring in danger for M. Clemenceau would step into the breach, and there would be no further question of the passing of the Bill.

BRITISH MODERN ART.

The depreciation in the auction room estimate of modern British art was shown at Messrs. Christie's last week when the Maculloch collection was sold, and two of Lord Leighton's most famous pictures were sold at considerable reduction on previous figures. The Hon. John Collier's "Glas of Water with Caesar Borgia" (1903) fetched 350 gu. The same year's Academy picture, "Funeral of a Viking" by Dicksee, went no further than 30 gu. Interest was chiefly centred in the Leighton picture, and "Daphne" by John Everett Millais, which in 1878, was looked upon as the principal item. The bidding for this opened at 500 gu. amid applause, but the end came at 520 gu. Twenty years ago the picture started at 375 gu. Leighton's "Glas of the Hesperides" started at 500 gu. and was purchased for 500 gu. Millais's "Lingering Ashten" an 1891 Academy picture, started at 500 gu. and fell at 140 gu. Altogether the sums realised were not considered satisfactory.

THE AMERICAN CUP.

The date fixed for the first race for the America Cup, Six Thomas' Lipson's challenge having at last been accepted, is September 10, 1914. The yacht that Thomas proposes to enter for the contest will be of a more serious type of boat than his late Shamrock, as it will be built under American laws of measurement. It will be named Shamrock IV, and will be built by Nicholson, of Southampton, and Gougeon, who will probably launch the boat at Southampton in March next. The services of Symonds and Waring, two of the best-known shipbuilders in the country, will again be engaged for the contest. It has not yet been settled who will actually have the steering of Shamrock IV. It is possible that the loss of Barr, who was considered one of the greatest skippers in the world, but who has now passed away, may considerably reduce the chances of retaining the Cup. "I have greater hopes of success than ever before," said Sir Thomas, "and I am looking forward with confidence to carrying off the Elms. Richard will be the skipper, and certainly that now the New York Yacht Club has accepted the challenge the members will do all they can to make things pleasant for me."

POPULARITY OF SPORT.

One result of the growing popularity of all branches of sport is that the upward movement in the cost is most marked. All the well-known sports, whether it be golf, tennis, football and golf are increasing in popularity. Football is making the biggest strides both here and abroad, but especially abroad. The demand for the best leather is enormous, and the price has gone up considerably. One firm alone requires 10,000 head of skins to meet the demand for football leather. Eight years ago a back cost 20s., but now it costs 50s. A few years ago cost 6d., now it costs 7d. to 8d. A willow stick which could be bought for 21s. a decade ago now fetches £20 easily. In golf material there has been great improvement, and the player, grudgingly or ungrudgingly, has to pay. Women, too, can no longer be ignored in sport. They make their own, and constantly increasing demands. Their entry into the world of golf, of tennis, and of hockey has meant the production of suitable material. It is pleasing to know that the English-made "half-marks" in sport, and especially there is confidence in the future. Says one firm:—"The youngsters are coming on magnificently. The young Briton is as good as ever. He plays the game for the game's sake, and he isn't so particular about the make of a bat or ball that he learns to be later."

THE NEW P. & O. STEAMER.

THE S.S. "NAGAYA."

Steamer arrivals in Colombo on the 4th inst., says the "Times of Ceylon," included the new P. & O. s.s. "Nagaya" on her maiden voyage out from London. The "Nagaya" belongs to what is known as the "N" class of ships, and is the third to be completed for an order for four vessels. She is intended for passenger and cargo trade, and is designed to meet the requirements of the London-Calcutta run. The vessel, which cost £7,000 tons, was provided by the "Nagaya" and "Nagaya," and will be followed shortly by the "Nagaya," which was launched about six weeks ago from Messrs. Caird and Co.'s shipyard.

BRITISH POLITICS.

MR. AUSTIN CHAMBERLAIN'S OUTBURST.

LONDON, June 24.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Austin Chamberlain moved an amendment expressing the opinion that the suppression of the right of the House to amend Bills vitally affecting the Constitution was a gross infringement of prerogative and liberties. He denounced the motion as monstrous, stating that the Government were constituting themselves judge, jury and executioner.

UNITED STATES CURRENCY.

A PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, June 24.

President Wilson has sent a Message to Congress urging immediate currency legislation with a view to mobilising money reserves and enlarging the system of credit to enable business men to take advantage of new conditions under the new tariff.

THE BALKAN CRISIS.

GRAVE ANXIETY FELT.

LONDON, June 23.

The semi-official "Journal Bulgaria" declares that Serbia's rejection of Bulgaria's proposals brings diplomatic negotiations to a close. The task now remains of finding more efficacious means of settlement of the differences. The Serbian Minister has left Sofia. Reuter learns that grave anxiety is felt among diplomats in London concerning the Serbo-Bulgarian crisis. The strongest pressure is being brought to induce Serbia to agree to arbitration unconditionally.

THE MACEDONIAN TROUBLE.

It was Bulgaria's conditions regarding Macedonia, which were that the disputed territory be occupied by an equal number of Serbian and Bulgarian troops, that Serbia rejected on Saturday. The Serbian Minister at the same time urged the unconditional acceptance of the Serbian proposal to mutually reduce their force on the frontier to one-fourth, and declared that demobilisation was the only means of avoiding an armed conflict. He added that Serbia was willing to accept arbitration, but not on the basis of the ante-war agreement. The Cabinet has again resigned.

GREECE PREPARING.

ATHENS, June 23.

The Queen at the last moment has deferred her proposed departure for Germany owing to the bad turn taken by Balkan affairs. Her Majesty is occupied with the re-establishment of the war hospitals organised under her patronage. The King returned to Salonika on Sunday.

VIOLENT RECRIMINATIONS.

LATER.

Recriminations between Sofia, Belgrade and Athens are reaching an extreme pitch. Scarcely a day passes without accusations of violence and outrage committed by the troops of one or other of the countries. These are followed by vehement denials, explanations, and counter charges. Altogether, public opinion appears to be approaching fever heat.

THE ASSASSINATIONS IN TURKEY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 23.

A Court-martial has sentenced to death 20 alleged accomplices in the assassination of Mahmud and Shafik, eight being sentenced to confinement.

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

DURING the summer months mothers should watch for any unusual looseness of the child's bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

AMERICA AND JAPAN.

ADMIRAL MAHAN AND THE RACIAL QUESTION.

LONDON, June 24.

Admiral Mahan, writing to "The Times" from America, discusses at length the question of Japanese immigration and naturalisation. While warmly admiring Japanese progress and achievements, he fails to perceive therein a promise of ready adaptability to the spirit of American institutions, which would render naturalization expedient. He emphasises the difficulties of assimilation, due to formative influences of divergent pasts and to race, and says that America doubts the power to digest and assimilate the strong national racial characteristics of the Japanese.

"The Times" commenting upon the letter, endorses Admiral Mahan's view, and says that the inability of the Japanese to assimilate is the source of national strength, just as it is the true source of the strength of the British in India.

THE DOVER BY-ELECTION.

UNIONIST CANDIDATE RETURNED UNOPPOSED.

LONDON, June 24.

Lord Duncannon, Unionist, has been returned unopposed for Dover.

FRENCH PRESIDENT LEAVES FOR ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 24.

A telegram from Paris states that President Poincaré has been given a very heavy send-off on leaving for Cherbourg, where he embarks on a warship on a visit to England.

STRAITS AND OPIUM.

QUESTIONS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LONDON, June 24.

Mr. Harcourt, Secretary for the Colonies, replying to Mr. Remond in the House of Commons, explained that the action of the Governor of the Straits Settlements in limiting the export of opium to Sarawak was with a view to preventing smuggling into Brunei. He added that the action of the Governor was intended solely to protect the revenue of the Colony, and not in variance with the agreement of His Majesty's Government with the Rajah.

SALE OF WAR MEDALS.

Messrs. Glendinning, at their galleries, Argyll-street, last month, concluded the sale of war medals and decorations. One group of decorations consisted of the gold enamelled badge of a Companion of the Bath, Army of India medal, with bar for Nepal, Maharajapur Star, December 29, 1843, and Satel medal, 1845, one bar for Ferozshah. This group belonged to Colonel James Stuart, who served for 34 years, 11 of which were in the capacity of Military Secretary to the Indian Government. They sold for £35. Another group, belonging to Admiral Sir Augustus Leopold Kuper, G.C.B., as follows: a gold enamelled badge of a K.G.C.B., with sail; a gold enamelled breast star of a K.G.C.B.; China War Medal, 1842; a gold badge of a Knight Commander of the Legion of Honour; a silver breast star of a K.C. of the Legion of Honour; a gold badge of the Order of William I. of Holland; and a breast star of the Order of William I. of Holland, fetched the high price of £49. Sir Augustus Kuper, G.C.B., entered the Navy in 1823, became captain 1841, admiral in 1873, and was Commander-in-Chief in the East Indies and China, 1892-5.

ECONOMY IN THE END.

IT costs but a small amount to keep Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy always in your medicine chest, and it is economy in the end. It always cures and purges quickly. For sale by all Chemists and Druggists.

CRIMINAL SESSIONS.

Before the Chief Justice, Sir William Rose Davies, K.C., at the June Criminal Sessions the case was continued this morning in which Chan Chay Chung, alias Chan Chung Kue, was charged on six counts with obtaining money under false pretences from a Chinese dentist by representing to him that he had obtained a Government monopoly for the brewing and selling of junks.

The Hon. Attorney-General, Mr. J. A. S. Bucknill, K.C., instructed by Mr. Crow, of Messrs. Hastings and Hastings, conducted the prosecution for this Crown prisoner, who pleaded not guilty, was unrepresented.

Defendant called several witnesses in his defence.

Prisoner had asked for a Mandarin interpreter early in the case, and his request was allowed. One of the witnesses was the prisoner's son who spoke to his father through the Mandarin interpreter. The Hon. Attorney-General said he would like to know from the witness whether he always employed an interpreter in speaking with his father. (Laughter.)

The witness gave an evasive reply, afterwards stating that he was studying Mandarin.

The jury found the prisoner not guilty on all counts and he was accordingly discharged.

THE BANK-NOTE IMITATION CASE.

Anton Hauler, a Hungarian subject, was charged with being in possession of certain papers and materials for the purpose of manufacturing resemblances to bank notes.

The Attorney-General Hon. Mr. J. A. S. Bucknill, K.C., instructed by Mr. Lewis, of Messrs. Johnson, Stokes and Master, prosecuted; prisoner, who was defended by Mr. F. C. Jenkin, instructed by Mr. R. C. Faithfull, pleaded not guilty to all the charges in the indictment. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, of Messrs. Deacon, Looker, Deacon and Harrison, watched the case for the Chartered Bank of India, Australia and China.

The Austrian Consul, Dr. Von Wiser, watched the case, and was accommodated with a seat on the bench.

The following jury was empanelled: Messrs. W. G. G. Worcester (foreman), H. F. Barrie, T. Hill, E. W. White, A. B. Eschmann, J. H. Underwood, and F. M. Garcia.

The evidence was interpreted in Russian to the prisoner by Miss K. M. Massey.

The Attorney-General outlining the case for the prosecution to the jury, said if all the evidence which had been laid against the accused was true he was obviously so skilled and possessed such knowledge that he might have converted his knowledge into some better course. The accused man, who was not a resident of Hongkong, seemed to have come to the Colony with the idea of making money. Here he met a man named Karl Weigel, who would be called as a witness. He had known Weigel some years ago in Shanghai, and was well acquainted with him. Prisoner imfolded his affairs and secrets to Weigel, who was employed in the comparatively harmless business of a butcher at the Dairy Farm. So far from assisting the accused in what were undoubtedly, according to the evidence, illegal practices, his old associate betrayed him into the hands of the police. Weigel told the accused that he was ready to go on with the affair which was disclosed to him, but he informed the police, and they raided the accused's room. It was clear from what they found that accused had considerable chemical knowledge, and the tests which he was able to perform with the chemicals at his command were truly astounding, not only to him (the Attorney-General), but even to professional chemists such as the Government analysts, who was in the called as a witness. He was acquainted with the properties of certain chemicals with which he was able to disintegrate, to some extent, both the fabric and the colouring of bank-notes current in the Colony and the examples which he had obtained, by a simple process, of impressions of bank-notes mentioned to the jury, accused was able to obtain reverse impressions on paper of bank-notes and then to transfer the impressions the right way about so as to make bogus notes samples of which he handed them for their inspection.

Karl Weigel, who said he was awaiting the trial of the trial to return to Shanghai, was the first witness called. He said that accused asked him to introduce some wealthy Chinese to him, and producing impressions of a bank-note he said he could make good notes from them. Accused told him not to be afraid as he had done these things before. At Singapore, accused added, he took copies of £10,000 worth of notes, at Bangkok £10,000 or £12,000, and at Shanghai over £6,000. There were four men in the business at Shanghai, and one man ran away with the whole of the money. Accused showed him how he could split a £5 note into two, and asked things. The case was proceeding when we went to press.

SCOTTISH LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

EDINBURGH, May 27.

THE THREE TABERNACLES.

The General Assemblies of the three great Scottish Presbyterian Churches are at present in session in Edinburgh, but as yet none of them have engaged in other than routine business. All attention is fixed upon the question of Reunion, and there are promises of stormy passages between Fathers and Brethren when the motions are tabled, a curious preliminary to the promotion of Peace in Zion.

Bishop Brent, of the Philippine Islands, who was one of the leading personalities at the World's Missionary Conference in Edinburgh two years ago, gave a striking address to the Church of Scotland Assembly. He reminded the members that the uttermost parts of the world were upon our doorstep to-day; that we had an opportunity in China and India such as missionaries in old days had prayed for; and he earnestly urged upon the Scottish Churches not to lose it. He said he had seen the work of the Spirit in the Far East, whether in business or in religion the Spirit was industrious and indomitable; but that power ever continues, but let it be most powerful of all in the work of missions.

Another of the outstanding figures, no in one but in all of the Assemblies, was General Chang, of China, who is at present touring the country in a campaign against the opium traffic. He relies most upon private conversations with leading clergymen and laymen, but his public appearances are very successful. While he speaks with gratitude of the policy of the Indian Government in deciding to stop the further exportation of the drug to China, he lays emphasis on the fact that there are great accumulations of opium stocks at Shanghai and other Treaty ports, and as long as these are allowed to remain, opium will be introduced up country and smuggling encouraged.

£25,000 has been presented to the U. F. Church anonymously, the income to be specially devoted to the needs of ministers in remote and outlying districts. On Foreign Mission Day in the Assembly of the Church of Scotland, among the missionaries on furlough presented to the Moderator were Miss Fraser, Ichang, after 16 years' service; Miss McQuillan, Ichang, 7 years' service; Miss Hadden, Ichang, 6 years' service.

In the United Free Assembly addresses were delivered by Rev. Dr. D. D. Muir, on the work of medical missionaries in China; and the Rev. D. C. Davidson, Hulan, on the progress of missionary effort in Mongolia. Among the missionaries presented to the Moderator were Miss E. Don Edward, and Miss Margaret Rose Ferguson, Manchuria; and Dr. Douglas S. Robertson, Mukden.

THE GOLF CARNIVAL.

The golf carnival of 1913, as I have written you, has been preceded by an incident attractive even to the non golfer: the Green Committee of St. Andrews Links has been giving much thought and care and practical work to the problem of pumping "Holl" dry. While this experiment, in its very nature, conflicts with a substantial body of popular doctrine—less absolute now, perhaps, than it was a century ago—it could not fail to excite concern in a nation which is still keenly interested in theological speculations. However, the Green Committee seems either to have solved the problem, or at least to have dealt with three parts of the course that are waterlogged, in an efficient way; and in view of the notoriously tenacious character of many linkers at St. Andrews, the golfer who makes his escape by lifting out of water and dropping on grass, at the cost of one stroke, will usually have reason to be grateful for this result of an abnormally wet spring. Another annual feature of this year's Amateur Championship, and one which may upset some players, is the present peculiar character of the putting greens. New turf in some cases, and successful treatment of impoverished turf in others, have resulted in the equipment of the Old Course of St. Andrews with "inland grove a." The former slippery character, which after a spell of east wind and sun was apt to dismay and unnerve the most courageous rider of long putts, has disappeared from the greens, and the degree it will be possible at the present meeting at St. Andrews to "give the hole a chance."

The list of entries for the Amateur Golf Championship included the names of almost all the best known players, the only notable absence being Mr. Horace G. Hutchinson, the winner of the first two Championships; Mr. Robert Maxwell, who has also two victories to his credit; Mr. Charles Hutchinson, who won in 1902 at Epsom, when 19 years of age; and Mr. John Graham, junior, of the Royal Liverpool, unquestionably the finest amateur who has ever won the Championship. As usual, London golfers are numerously represented, and Edinburgh players are in fairly strong force. Apart from the members of the Royal and Ancient Club, St. Andrews contributes few representatives, and considering the amount of golf played on the Tyndale course, the number of players is not large. Ireland again sends her hopes mainly in Mr. Lionel O. Munn, Mr. H. M. Cairnes, and Captain Boyd. Overseas golf is represented by four Americans: Mr. Campbell D. White, Mr. Harold Weber, Mr. Finley St. Douglas, and Mr. Heinrich Schmidt; by Mr. Jackson Walton, and Mr. D'Arcy Martin, from Canada; and by Mr. O. D. S. Dean, from India.

INTERNATIONAL POLO.

ENGLISHER'S FIVE VICTORY IN A PRACTICE MATCH.

New York, May 26.

Ideal weather brought a fashionable crowd to the polo grounds at Piping Rock, Long Island, this afternoon, when the British players had their third practice match against an American team consisting of Messrs. von Stada, Milburn, and Agassig, with Mr. Frauke, the English reserve man.

The American team was relatively as strong as that beaten at Meadowbrook on Sunday by 6 goals to 0 by Mr. Whitney's team, which defended the international cup two years ago. The sunshine warmed and drying on grass, at the cost of one stroke, will usually have reason to be grateful for this result of an abnormally wet spring. Another annual feature of this year's Amateur Championship, and one which may upset some players, is the present peculiar character of the putting greens. New turf in some cases, and successful treatment of impoverished turf in others, have resulted in the equipment of the Old Course of St. Andrews with "inland grove a."
